Flush Mount

The perfect addition to your coastal-inspired dream space, Marlee is casual, rustic elegance in a compact design. The fixture sits close to the ceiling with organic materials and a geometric shape. A rope shade and Matte Black metal hardware create a stylish mixture of materials. Beneath the shade, partially exposed bulbs provide widespread illumination. The fixture casts intriguing light and shadow patterns on the ceiling and nearby surfaces. The handwoven Raphia rope has a modern, contemporary look that is highly adaptable to rattan furniture and décor trends. Hang this damp-rated fixture anywhere in your home.
